MASONIC OUTREACH SERVICES

Dear Mrs. _____,

I'm writing to remind you about your benefits as the widow of a California Mason in good standing. It's important to me that you know about the support services offered by our fraternity, and that you know that you're a valued member of our lodge family.

Here are your benefits, even if you've moved out of California:

Masonic Family Outreach (any age)

- No matter what your husband's Masonic degree level was: You may receive help dealing with family issues, such as the impact of divorce, the stresses of a special needs child, and other challenges.
- Call (888) 466-3642 or email masonicassistance@mhcc.org.

Masonic Senior Outreach (age 60 or older)

- No matter what your husband's Masonic degree level was: You may receive information and referrals.
- If your husband was a Master Mason: You may apply for case management.
- If your husband was a Master Mason in good standing for five consecutive years: In addition to the above services, you may be eligible for financial support. You are also eligible for admission to a Masonic Homes of California continuing care retirement community, located in Covina and Union City.
- Call (888) 466-3642 or email masonicassistance@mhcc.org.

Other benefits

- Monthly lodge Trestleboard
- Inclusion on lodge phone tree and mailings
- Bi-monthly California Freemason magazine
- [Fill in with any additional benefits offered by the lodge]

Please don't hesitate to contact the lodge at [e-mail] or [phone number] with questions, or just to check in. We would always like to hear from you.

Sincerely and fraternally,

NAME
Master, [lodge]
