Wells Fargo is working on a daily basis to put measures in place to support the needs of customers impacted by COVID-19 in the most effective ways possible. Wells Fargo is suspending residential property foreclosure sales, evictions and involuntary automobile repossessions. The company also is offering fee waivers, payment deferrals and other expanded assistance for credit card, auto, mortgage, small business and personal lending customers who contact the company

Federal Student Loans

Step one is reaching out to your lender. The Department of Education has contact numbers for services of federally held loans listed on its website. If you're not sure who holds your loan, call the Federal Student Aid Information Center (FSAIC) at 1-800-433-3243 or visit StudentAid.gov/login.

Privately held student loans

It's critical to note that last week's announcement has no authority over privately held loans, such as those held by Sallie Mae.

You can still request a forbearance to temporarily postpone or reduce your payments, but as of now, you'll still face late fees, and interest will accrue. And a payment might be required to obtain the forbearance.

Personal Auto Customer Relief Refund, which will return an estimated $250 million to our personal auto insurance customers. Here's how it works:

- Personal auto insurance customers will receive a 15% refund on two months of their auto premiums, as of April 7, 2020, pending regulatory approval.
- The refunds will begin in April and will be issued either by check or in the manner you made your most recent payment.
- The payments will happen automatically, and you do not need to call us to receive the refund.

Payment Flexibility Options

- We have automatically stopped charging late fees and have temporarily paused personal auto & home coverage cancellations due to non-payment from March 23 through May 22, 2020, or later as directed by your state.
- We are also extending payment dates if needed. Please contact us if we can be of assistance.

Changes to Auto & Property Claims Process to Protect Customers and Employees

- We've stopped all in-home damage inspections effective immediately except in emergency situations, such as water damage with an active leak or threat of mold, to avoid having employees entering homes. Whenever possible, we will do in-home inspections through RealTime Review video chat or other video collaboration tools. We will ask customers for their approval before using these tools.
- Our adjusters will continue to do outside property inspections outside the home with customer permission. Our property adjusters will be following CDC Guidelines, including social distancing and following sanitation guidelines.
- Auto appraisers will not be visiting customer homes or auto body shops except in emergency situations and will follow CDC guidelines. You can submit photographs of vehicle damage online and through our app, including using our new assisted-photo tool which will show you step-by-step how to take damage photos.
- All other claims employees are working from home to continue to support customers. For faster claims processing, we strongly encourage you to file new claims online, to manage claims online, and to use our digital tools including RealTime Review video chat and guided photo capture.
- We are suspending our Claims Valet Service until further notice except for emergency situations.
- We're instructing any vendors who provide services to Liberty Mutual to follow the same guidelines.

- If you're experiencing financial difficulties, we offer you a grace period, upon request, for premium payments through May 15, 2020. Your coverage will be uninterrupted during this period, but you must make a payment by May 15, 2020, to avoid a lapse in coverage after that date. Call 800-334-0090 to make your request.
- We're suspending cancellations of coverage for nonpayment of premiums, through at least May 15, 2020, in Colorado, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Washington, and West Virginia. You don't need to call to request this suspension.
 - Start and stop dates of suspensions may vary by state.
 - If you don't pay your premium in one of these states, you may receive a cancellation notice. Your policy, however, may still be active during the suspension period. Please call 800-334-0090 if you have any questions about your coverage, start and stop dates, or suspension rules as they apply in your state.
- If we don't receive your payment by the end of your grace period or cancellation suspension, your policy will be cancelled on the effective date of any cancellation notice you receive.
- Effective April 6, 2020, we're suspending enforcement of our exclusions for food delivery through May 15, 2020, countrywide. All other deliveries continue to be excluded, and all other terms and conditions of your policy continue to apply.

- Restaurant Employee Relief Fund

- www.rerf.us
- <https://rerf.us/apply-for-aid/application-faqs/>

The Restaurant Employee Relief Fund (“Fund”) was created to help restaurant industry employees experiencing extraordinary hardship in the wake of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) outbreak. Through this Fund, grants will be made to restaurant industry employees who have been impacted by COVID-19, including a decrease in wages or loss of employment. Grants will be awarded as soon as possible to those individuals who meet the prescribed eligibility criteria, as reviewed and verified by the National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation (NRAEF).

Subject to the availability of funds contributed to the Fund, a one-time grant of $500 will be disbursed directly to the applicant following NRAEF’s review and confirmation that their submitted application meets the prescribed guidelines. Awards will be limited to one grant per person. All grant approvals are at the discretion of the NRAEF. Applications will open on April 2, 2020.

- Who Should Apply To Receive Funds?

Funds will be available for restaurant and foodservice employees who can demonstrate that they:

- ✓ Worked on a part- or full-time basis in the restaurant industry for at least 90 days in the past year; and
- ✓ Have had a primary source of income in the restaurant industry for the last year; and
- ✓ Have experienced a decrease in needed wages or loss of job on or after March 10, 2020 which these grant funds will help offset; and
- ✓ Live in the United States, an overseas U.S. military base, or any U.S. territory*; and
- ✓ Are over the age of legal majority in their in their U.S. state or territory.

Critical Delivery Service

Temporary delivery program for older and dependent adults

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and the California Safer at Home Initiative, our aging population has an increased need for timely delivery services. WDACS has launched a temporary delivery program called Critical Delivery Services (CDS) to deliver food and other vital items to individuals who are unable to leave their homes due to COVID-19.

Who qualifies for delivery services?

Delivery services are reserved for those who meet at least one of the following criteria:

- ➔ Aged 60 years and older
- ➔ Individual with a permanent or temporary disability
- ➔ Dependent Adults (aged 18-59 years)

Once items are ready for pick-up, call 888-863-7411. Deliveries can be made:

-  24 hours a day
-  7 days a week

What can be delivered?

Groceries

Household Items

Vital Necessities

Per month, individuals can receive up to:

Four (4) deliveries or

40 miles worth of deliveries

How can deliveries be scheduled?

Call 888-863-7411 to request delivery service

Order items for delivery via online/ phone and provide payment for items to the pick-up location

Critical Delivery Service Coordinator will schedule a taxi driver to deliver your items to you

Critical Delivery Service Coordinator will call you back to confirm the delivery has been scheduled

To schedule deliveries, call hotline M-F, 8:00am to 5:00pm. Same day deliveries are available only during schedule hours.
