

THE TRAINING COORDINATOR'S ROLE:

- Attend quarterly Lodge Outreach Meetings facilitated by Masonic Outreach Services staff
- Train Lodge leadership at Inspector's Schools of Instruction on available Masonic relief programs
- Train 2-to-4 Lodges per District on how to do Lodge Outreach: forming committees, warm calling and friendly visits
- Provide the Lodges and Lodge leadership with outreach tools and up-to-date information on resources
- Serve as the liaison between regional MOS staff, including Care Managers, and Lodges within their Masonic Districts

A TYPICAL LODGE OUTREACH MEETING

- Is moderated by MOS Staff
- Begins with introductions and a group discussion about local Lodge Outreach activities
- Includes a training on a community outreach skill
- Has a group Training Coordinator debrief
- Wraps-up with sharing updates about Masonic relief programs and how MOS can support local Lodge Outreach efforts

Thank you for your time...

The labors of Brotherly Love and Relief will always be with us.

So, Lodge Outreach is an everlasting endeavor.

The most precious gift is free,
But it's priceless.
You can't own it, but you can use it.
You can't keep it,
But you can choose how to spend it.
